DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 6, 8-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claims 6 and 8-9 the trademark/trade name "RANDAL". Where a trademark or trade name is used in a claim as a limitation to identify or describe a particular material or product, the claim does not comply with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph. See Ex parte Simpson, 218 USPQ 1020 (Bd. App. 1982). The claim scope is uncertain since the trademark or trade name cannot be used properly to identify any particular material or product. A trademark or trade name is used to identify a source of goods, and not the goods themselves. Thus, a trademark or trade name does not identify or describe the goods associated with the trademark or trade name. In the present case, the trademark/trade name is used to identify/describe a first truck and a second truck and, accordingly, the identification/description is indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-5 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Allred (2,424,072).

Allred in figure 1, discloses a roller skate having a double stacked truck system, which can be used for skateboard comprising a first truck (6) attached to a base plate (5), which can be mounted on an underside of a skateboard at each end of the skateboard. The first truck comprises an adjustable king pin (10) and grommet configuration. The first truck reduced in height by having no axle. Allred also discloses a second truck (18) attached to the first truck. The second truck comprises an adjustable kingpin (27) and grommet (30) configuration and an axle (20) and pair of wheels (21) so that the first and second truck combine to create a stacked truck having two cooperative kingpin and grommet configurations for a single axle and pair of wheels.

Regarding claim 2, Allred discloses the kingpin of the second truck further comprising a pivot end insertable in the base plate.

Regarding claim 3, Allred discloses the first truck and the second truck, which are welded together.

Regarding claim 4, Allred discloses the first and second trucks having similarly angled kingpins.

Regarding claim 5, Allred discloses the first and second trucks, which are both regular type trucks.

Regarding claim 7, Allred discloses the first and second trucks having differently angled kingpins.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Ware discloses a resilient roller skate, Grenko discloses a roller skate, Runyan, Jr. discloses a cambered skateboard, Varner et al. disclose a cam-action axle carrier, Solimine discloses a wheel truck for steerable platform.
